As part of the final poster presentation, I assumed responsibility for the creation of the cover poster and the poster pertaining to research question 3. Specifically, I authored and structured the content of the paragraphs contained therein, aiming to provide comprehensive and logically sound details. Moreover, I designed the layout of the poster to ensure that it was visually pleasing. During the presentation itself, I assumed the role of introducing our team's work, providing a concise overview of our inspiration, data, graphics, and conclusions to our audience for research question 3.
